RE: Workplace Violence

The parties acknowledge that the Occupational Health and Safety Act requires that school boards and supervisors provide workers with information, including personal information, related to a risk of workplace violence from a person with a history of violent behaviour, if the worker can be expected to encounter that person in the course of their work and the risk of workplace violence is likely to expose the worker to physical injury.

School boards and supervisors must not disclose more personal information about a person with a history of violent behaviour than is reasonably necessary to protect workers from physical injury.

Within sixty (60) days following the date of ratification of the central terms, school boards will recirculate the Workplace Violence in School Boards: A Guide to the Law (released in 2018 by the Ministry of Labour) to local health and safety committees.
