RE: Workplace Violence

The Parties acknowledge that school boards and supervisors are required to provide workers with information, including personal information, related to a risk of workplace violence from a person with a history of violent behaviour, if the worker can be expected to encounter that person in the course of their work and the risk of workplace violence is likely to expose the worker to physical injury.

School Boards and supervisors must not disclose more personal information about a person with a history of violent behaviour than is reasonably necessary to protect workers from physical injury. For instance, workers may not need to know specific personal information, but will be provided with information on the measures and procedures to be followed as part of the workplace violence program in order to protect themselves.

In the case of student safety plans, procedures should be in place so that workers who work directly with the student have access to the student safety plan.

The Parties acknowledge that online reporting tools have been implemented by School Boards, as initiated by 2018:SB06, and the existing systems will be maintained.

By November 30 2023, school boards will recirculate the Workplace Violence in School Boards: A Guide to the Law (released in 2018 by the Ministry of Labour) to local health and safety committees.
